JIMMY DEAN

First team manager Jimmy Dean writes his latest set of notes...

Good evening and welcome back to Glanford Park for another game under the lights, as we host Southport, turning our attentions back to the Vanarama National League North.

With winter drawing closer, and the clock going back a couple of weeks ago, all of our games for the next few months will be under the lights, but there's something special about a Tuesday night game here at Glanford Park, and we've shown that so far this season in the fixtures that we've had here.

It was vitally important that we progressed in the FA Trophy at the weekend. We are taking the competition seriously, and kept a strong team on the day. We got the early goal through Connor Smith, and made it 2-0 in the first half through another outrageous strike from Jacob Butterfield, and were afforded the chance to cruise to another comfortable and professional performance, and win, at home without being overly tested.

With that we got another clean sheet, meaning we've won our last five games here, scoring 17 goals and conceding just one - keeping four clean sheets in those five games, which is a superb return. We have to be really happy with how things are going here, and it's even better with the news coming out of the club last week that contracts have been exchanged. It serves as an added boost for myself, the staff, the players and of course, you as supporters, that we will be playing our football at the venue that holds so many memories over the last 35 years we've been here. Glanford Park already holds some incredible memories for me that will live with me forever, so for those of you that have been coming for years and years, there will be so many more fond memories of times gone by.

Here's hoping we can create more and more memories here. I said going into this week, we were aiming for three wins. We have one of those, and must look to continue that this evening, and on Saturday as well.

We welcome Southport here this evening, who will not make things easy at all. They had a phenomenal win on Saturday, beating South Shields 4-0 in the FA Trophy, so they'll come here in great spirits. Jim Bentley has done a tremendous job since he's gone in there. The team had a tough start to the season, but since he's become their manager, he's had them flying up the table.

They have both Marcus Carver and Richie Bennett on loan from us, but neither are eligible to play against us. Naturally, after tonight's game, we hope they continue to get gametime and get back in the team to help them further.

On Saturday, we made a couple of changes, giving a few other players the opportunity to get match minutes and show what they're about. It was great to get 90 minutes into Maxi Kouogun, which was vital particularly with Will Evans suspended this evening. We also got 45 minutes into Michael Kelly and 60 minutes into Callum Roberts. The squad is looking good now, with Alfie Beestin also not too far away.

Hopefully, we can put on another show for you this evening, and create more special memories under the lights at Glanford Park.

Up the Iron!

Jimmy

CLUB NEWS

A look at the news since the last time we met...

CLUB STATEMENT - GLANFORD PARK

Scunthorpe United is delighted to confirm that contracts have been exchanged, as planned, for the ongoing purchase of Glanford Park.

The Board of Directors have been working tirelessly behind the scenes, having secured the immediate future of the club in October, with discussions progressing positively since the club's last statement to meet the target of mid-November.

The club anticipate that completion will be towards the back end of November.

An update directly from the Board...

As a Board of Directors, we are ecstatic to announce that we have exchanged contracts for the purchase of Glanford Park.

The monumental effort from all involved, both in this process, and to keep the club running on a day-to-day basis, has not gone unnoticed, and we express our unwavering gratitude for the support which has been a driving force behind these positive outcomes.

As said previously though, this is when the hard work truly does start. The club has overcome a number of obstacles, bumps in the road, and issues surrounding our future, but we now need the ongoing support of all of our supporters, local businesses and the community to make this a success and get this great club firmly back on track.

Over the past couple of months, we have seen how much this football club means to everyone. It is integral to the town, and everyone had rallied round to ensure we have a future. This needs to continue. Whether it's attending games, purchasing from the shop, signing up to our lottery, or supporting the club in another way, every little bit of backing is pivotal for our future.

We extend that level of importance to local businesses, and the local community. In the coming weeks and months, we will be actively engaging with a number of local businesses. We want as many to be part of our plans as possible, and urge any that are interested in showing a level of support, big or small, to get in touch with us.

Moving forward, our focus is to continue to tackle our extreme levels of debt that have been inherited. Good progress has been made to conquer a number of these, but we need support from everyone to continue moving in the right direction.

As a Board of Directors, we acknowledge there is work yet to be done, but we remain confident in the positive trajectory set in motion. We extend our thanks, once more, to all those that have played a role in this milestone achievement.

We've said it before. This is your club. Let's make sure our future is bright.

FOCUS ON... MAX KOUOGUN

We continue our interviews with the Iron squad this season by talking to Max Kouogun, who returned to the side at the weekend following injury...

Another player who returns to the side this week is the Iron's number four, Max Kouogun. After an extended stint on the sidelines, recovering from an injury sustained at Chorley, he's now looking to stake a claim for the starting jersey once more, and is aiming to capitalise on Will Evans' suspension this evening.

The Irishman was brought into the team on Saturday in place of Andrew Boyce, primarily in anticipation for the loss of Evans this evening, as he serves a one-match ban for accumulating five yellow cards just two games shy of the amnesty. For Kouogun, the 90 minutes at the weekend, coupled with his likely nod this evening, gives him the chance - not only to regain his match fitness, but to take the starting XI space that he began the campaign with. Speaking to the former York City defender going into the encounter with the Sandgrounders, he said: "It was really good to be back out there. It's been a long six or seven weeks for myself personally, with the injury. It was good to be back, and to participate at the weekend. I felt really good, and I was really happy with it.

"It was very frustrating. It happened at Chorley away and was a bit of a freak accident really. I ended up hurting my MCL. Over the past couple of weeks, I've been working really hard to make sure that I've come back fit and ready to help the team, and that's what I'm ready to do from here on out. Hopefully, I'll stay fit, and I'll keep building momentum.

"Throughout the team, in every position, there's competition for places, and when you have that shirt, it's your responsibility to go and keep it. When you're in the eleven, when you're on the bench, when you're in the squad, you have to fight for your position and try to keep your shirt. Everyone is of that mindset, and that will only help as a collective to push the group on."

"...when you have that shirt, it's your responsibility to go and keep it... Everyone is of that mindset, and that will only help as a collective..."

Max Kouogun

The competition for places doesn't need magnifying more than the three central defensive spaces. At first, it was Andrew Boyce who was forced to bide his time on the sidelines at the start of the season as Kouogun and Evans got the nod from Jimmy Dean. Since the injury, Boyce has more than taken his chance. Now, with Kouogun returning from injury and being given his chance on Saturday, he's aiming to consolidate his shirt and give the gaffer a headache going into the weekend's game.

"You can only look at the next game, and take it one game at a time and try to perform as best as you can. That should be the mindset regardless of whether there are one, two or no one there to replace you. Once you cross that white line, you have to give 100 per cent."

Prior to getting injured, it was an Evans-Kouogun combination in the heart of the Iron defence, which was yielding a strong backline. He Irishman outlined his thoughts on the games he played prior to being sidelined.

"I think myself and Will were building a good relationship. Obviously, we had some good results prior to my injury. There was a bit of turbulence at the football club at the time, which affected some performances and results as a collective. That's all behind us now, we're just looking forward to building our momentum, and really trying to push on and challenge for the league.

"For any footballer, all you want to focus on is the football. You want to come into training and go into games knowing that all of the background noise is as minimal as possible. Obviously, it was unsettling at the time, but we had to try to be as professional as possible, and to try and do the job that we are here to do. We tried to stick at it, and by the grace of God, we are now moving in the right direction as a football club.

"When you're out on the sidelines, you have a bit more time to read up on articles that are being published. For your own mental health, you had to try and stay clear of that as much as possible and just take everything as face value. That's all we could do at the time. That page is turned. We've secured the future, and everything seems to be heading in the right direction.

"You can only look at the next game, and take it one game at a time ...that should be the mindset regardless..."

Max Kouogun

“The dressing room has always been a positive atmosphere to be honest considering what was happening. Definitely, there is a sense of security subconsciously that has come into the lads. Knowing that we can just get on with the football now and that the other things are taken care off does give us that settled feeling.”

Taking into consideration that settled feeling, we also asked Maxi about playing at Glanford Park and how much he's enjoyed turning out on home soil since joining the club.

It's been really good. There's a great atmosphere each week. We all know what Scunthorpe United brings. It's a big club for the level, and it's a club that obviously have been a lot higher. It's a club that's looking to do that again. I feel that, if we can go on, win the league and get promoted this season, it's only going to build momentum for the football club. It's no mistake why we were where we were, it's about the current players here to try and get us back where we were and build with the football club, both personally and collectively.

“I knew about the project when the gaffer spoke to me in the summer. He told me about the ambition that he holds as an individual and then as a football club and it aligns with myself, my values, and how I want my career to go.”

Looking ahead to the test against the Sandgrounders, Kouogun acknowledges another tough test in the offing for the side, especially off their convincing 4-0 win over South Shields in the FA Trophy at the weekend.

“It's another challenging game, and another quick turnaround from Saturday.

“There are no easy games in football really, so we have to approach the game in a professional manner, we have to approach the game with a mindset that we're going to win, and that's exactly what we'll be looking to do for the game.”

The turnaround for the game represents a challenge for Kouogun having only returned to the side at the weekend, but it's one he's looking forward to challenging himself with come this evening, if he's given the nod to keep his shirt.

“I feel good. There's nothing that can prepare you for competitive games, regardless of how much you've done, regardless of how many friendlies you've played. It's chalk and cheese really.

“It was good to get the cup game on Saturday in, and I'm hoping to build on that in this game. Hopefully, I'll be able to maximise my fitness very soon.”

COMMERCIAL NEWS

A commercial update ahead of today's game...

Five wins in a row in all competitions here at Glanford Park, and it's no doubt that the results on the pitch, and the upturn in positivity are massively helping the Iron commercially as well.

We've been busy taking bookings for the remainder of the season and have been humbled by how many businesses want to do their bit. We now have a limited number of matchball packages remaining for the rest of the season, while we are also selling captain and digital programme sponsorships. We also released our social media match sponsorship packages, which again gives anyone the chance to promote themselves, or their business, to a wider platform, and be displayed across the Iron's Facebook, Twitter and Instagram pages, as well as the website throughout the day.

A big thank you to our pair of sponsors from the weekend. We welcome Hales and Coultas Heating and Plumbing as match sponsors, with Ongo arriving at Glanford Park as part of the day. We hope they enjoyed their experience with us, and they chose Jacob Butterfield as their man of the match as he netted another outrageous goal.

Our matchball sponsors at the weekend saw us welcome Study United to Glanford Park. Based at the stadium, they offer a diverse range of services to schools which have a positive impact on the learning and achievement of pupils across North Lincolnshire. We are grateful for their continuous support which is received throughout the season.

Tonight, we welcome Lee and Charlotte Collinson as match sponsors. Both have given us a considerable amount of support over the years, and we're grateful that they continue to do so. We trust, as they dine with us regularly, that they will enjoy their experience with us as ever.

We also welcome the Laundry Lounge as matchball sponsors this evening. Based on Broadway in Ashby, Laundry Lounge is a new modern laundrette that allows you to relax while you wait. Recently celebrating their first birthday, we thank them for their support and congratulate them on their milestone.

A regular supporter of the club, we also welcome the Whistle and Flute, Barnetby-le-Wold this evening as our first-ever social media sponsors, while Scunny Mini Junior U12s Tour is the captain sponsor, and Paul Gordon Salon are our digital programme sponsors.

Our new club lottery is going well, plus we will soon have news on our reignited Junior Iron club, our Junior Iron party, our Christmas "What's On" and more as we head into 2024.

Please contact commercial@scunthorpe-united.co.uk for any sponsorship, or mascot enquiries. We have packages to suit any need, business or pleasure!

Good luck to the lads!

MIDLAND LEAGUE DUTIES STILL IN THE FA CUP

A SCRAP WITH A TIGER AND A TIE WITH ROTHERHAM

Historian John Staff continues his 100-year rewind, looking back at 1923-24

The superb run experienced by Scunthorpe United during the autumn of 1923, during the 1923-24 season, was truly remarkable.

In the Midland League, they had managed a run of five matches unbeaten, even though they had home advantage in each case. In this sequence, they had twice taken points from the, then, league leaders. The first of these was a spirited goalless draw, against Notts County, and the next against Grimsby Town Reserves, who went back to Blundell Park with their rowing boat hit by a 3-0 torpedo.

In the meantime, the club had made some determined progress in the FA Cup, and home victories had beaten Grimsby Rovers, Cleethorpes Town, Gainsborough Trinity and Boston. Only last week, a century ago, it was Rotherham Town's turn to be turfed out of the competition, although they put up some stern resistance. It was only following a replay, away at the Clifton Ground, Rotherham, that Scunthorpe made the safe passage, thanks to Joe Kitchen netting the single goal of the match.

If there was a worry for supporters, it was that Kitchen was the only player functioning in the forward line, and without his presence the Nuts were not so strong. For the time being, they need to worry not, but concentrate on facing Rotherham County in the Fifth Qualifying Round, a week on Saturday. At least a headache of extra Cup games was putting much needed brass into the coffers, and a rubbing of the hands in anticipation of what further glory might be in the offing.

The next fixture for the Scunthorpe players was to face the Tiger Cubs of Hull City Reserves, who were fresh from a week of rest, whereas, Scunthorpe still had blooded knees from Thursday night's replay slog in Yorkshire. The directors needed to make two changes from Thursday evening, and on the right wing Shearsmith came on duty for Lawton, while Burkinshaw was unavailable, and Wilson played up front, in a shuffled forward line, by way of 'experimentation'. Thus the following team was sent to represent the Club; Reynolds, goalkeeper; Bradbury and Hargreaves, fullbacks; Skull, Ashmore and Millson, half backs; Shearsmith, Kitchen, Wilson, Raby and Foster, forwards.

Oscar Hargreaves, shown a red card.

ELEVENTH HOUR GOAL. SCUNTHORPE VANQUISHED AT HOME. WEAK FORWARD PLAY RESPONSIBLE.

For their home match with Hull City Reserves this afternoon Scunthorpe United played a very experimental forward line. It was not surprising that a change should be made in this department, following the failure of the forwards at Rotherham. Shearsmith, really a full back, figured at outside right, whilst Wilson, the reserve team centre-half, came in at centre forward. Teams:—
SCUNTHORPE.—Reynolds: Bradbury

quently pulled up the forwards smartly. There was no score at the interval, this being a fair reflex of the play.

Half-time:

Scunthorpe United .....

Hull City .....

The United opened out well in the second half and for some time the ball was kept well down in the City half of the field, although the home side never actually became dangerous. At the same time there was a corner on the right which was cleared by Hedley. There was then a scramble in the United goal.

The headline against the Tiger Cubs

Scunthorpe United showed no signs of heavy legs after the extra exertions of the previous Thursday, and played particularly well during the first period, without scoring. The Hull City team contained two players who had been colleagues of Joe Kitchen, and they made sure he was shackled from scoring. The rest of the front line posed less of a threat.

However, it was the Nuts who took the lead, fifteen minutes into the second half. A corner was taken by Foster, and Wilson headed clean through, and into the net. At that time it looked as though the Tiger Cubs were suffering, especially when they lost their left back to injury. Instead they played up with greater vigour, and equalised five minutes later. Then, as a drawn result seemed certain, City's second eleven snatched the winner with only six minutes left. The Tiger Cubs were the first team to score against the Nuts in eight previous matches.

Scunthorpe United now looked to Saturday and the prospects of the FA Cup tie with Rotherham County from Division Three North. Ticket sales were brisk, and at kick-off the attendance was recorded at 4,152.

ENGLISH CUP SCUNTHORPE V. ROTHERHAM COUNTY.

In the cup tie at Scunthorpe on Saturday, there were 4,152 spectators present, the gate receipts amounting to £164. The slippery ground, consequent upon the frost and rains of the previous few days, handicapped the players' movements greatly. Scunthorpe had only ten men for practically the whole of the second half and minutes from the interval. Ernie Millson initiated the move from the left side of the park, and pushed a ball into the path of Joe Kitchen. The Nuts inside left took control, slipped past the County right back, and unleashed a shot, into the corner of the net. Although Rotherham to the disbelief of the Scunthorpe crowd, Hargreaves was ordered off the field. It meant that the under pressure ten Nuts played the ball out of the field, or tried the offside tactic. Just as time was slipping away, Rotherham County equalised, through a 'melee', in which Reynold grabbed the ball by the goal line, but the referee was satisfied that the whole of it had crossed for a valid point. The match finished 1-1, and the following Thursday the replay took place on the Millmoor ground at Rotherham.

The cup tie headline.

United brought back Lawton for Shearsmith and Burkinshaw for Raby. At the appointed kick-off time, conditions on the Old Show Ground were far from ideal for neat football, being slippery from a combination of frost and heavy rain over the last 24 hours.

During the first half, Scunthorpe United had the better of the exchanges, and scored five thought they had replied, a linesman's flag tempered their celebrations, so much so that travelling supporters booed venomously at the referee. The game soon entered the second half, and another refereeing decision was to anger the home supporters, and possibly influence the result. Hargreaves fouled a Rotherham player outside the penalty box, as reported at the time, a straight forward foul without malice, but

For the replay, changes to the Scunthorpe team were necessary, but evidence of the ninety minutes play have not been unearthed in the local journals. It is known that Frank Skull was moved to inside right, but the replacement for his former position is unknown. Scunthorpe United lost the game 2-0, as Chambers and Williams scored for County. It had been a memorable run in the competition.

We take a look at this evening's opponents, first starting with their brief history of how they got to where they are today...

A BRIEF HISTORY

The original Southport Football Club began as a rugby team in the 1870s.

Reforming in 1881 after the original club had ceased to function a year earlier, the new club played only three games of the 1881-82 season before switching to association football under the guidance of former Welsh international Thomas Burnett. On Saturday 12th November 1881 Southport took to the field against Bootle "second" in their first match under Association Rules.

The original association club merged with Southport Wanderers in the summer of 1886, and in 1888 a new professional football club, Southport Central, was formed.

Southport Central became founder members of the Central League in 1911 and in 1918 were taken over by the Vulcan Motor Company – playing as Southport Vulcan for one season, the first club to use a sponsorship label as part of their name, before reverting back to the original name of Southport Football Club.

Southport, under Secretary Edwin Clayton, joined the Football League in 1921 upon the establishment of the Third Division North, and were captained by Jimmy Fay, one of the founding members of what is now the Professional Footballers Association. In 1929 he became secretary and treasurer of the PFA and held post until 1959.

In the FA Cup Southport became the first Third Division North club to reach the sixth round in 1931, losing away from home against the mighty Everton 9-1. A season later a Haig Avenue record gate of 20,010 saw the Sandgrounders draw in the 4th round with Newcastle. Southport reached the 5th round in 1965 after defeating Cardiff City before losing to Hull City.

Southport had two promotions as a Football League side, in 1966-67 under Billy Bingham and as Champions in 1972-73 under Jimmy Meadows. Sadly, the second promotion lasted just one season with the club relegated and the slide into non-league football gathered pace. Twenty Third in 1975-76, 1976-77 and 1977-78 saw the club having to apply for re-election.

Disastrously Chairman Walter Giller failed to canvass and on a second ballot at the Café Royal on June 2nd Southport lost their league status. Southport's fifty years in the Football League was over. Their last home Football League match was against Huddersfield Town on April 22nd drawing 1-1 while their last ever Football League match was away to Graham Taylor's Watford, losing 3-2 in front of 10,089 supporters as Watford's rise up the leagues began and it was third time unlucky when Wigan Athletic took the Sandgrounders place in the Football League.

Since then, they have been members of the NPL (1978-1993), the Conference (1993-2003) and then the NPL Premier Division (2003-04). Since then, they've played in the National League North or National League.

In October 2023, the Big Help Group became the majority shareholder.

8. David Morgan

David returns to the club after being released by Accrington Stanley at the end of the 2022-23 season. He took on a player coach role that will also involve working alongside the existing Academy coaches.

11. Tyler Walton

A roaming midfielder, he joined in January 2022 initially on loan from Farsley Celtic, but such was his impressive form the loan was quickly made into a permanent move. His former clubs include Leeds United and Manchester City at youth level and York City for whom he debuted at 17 years of age.

20. Luke Burgess

Luke became manager Jim Bentley's first permanent signing in mid October. The midfielder who has previous experience with Wigan and Salford spent the 2022-23 season at Oldham before a loan spell at Altrincham and more recently he has been with Ashton United. Likes to get amongst the goals and is a player who will excite the Southport fans.

Connor is a big powerful forward who had been with Nantwich since the summer of 2020 after being released from Crewe Alexandra, where he impressed during his two-year scholarship period with a number of goals; he signed a professional contract in the summer of 2019.

22. Bradley Holmes

Brad signed a professional contract with Blackpool in the summer of 2021 and is a striker with big potential.

Good at beating the offside trap and creating chances for himself to go on and score, Holmes made his first league start for Blackpool in May 2021 in a victory over Bristol Rovers.

He spent the first part of the 2021-22 season on loan at FC United of Manchester, where he impressed, before signing a further loan at National League North side Chorley. He was at AFC Fylde last season.

We get the latest from the Iron Trust...

Welcome to Glanford Park stadium for tonight's visit of Southport FC the fourth consecutive Saturday-Tuesday combination of matches.

A warm welcome to fans of the Sandgrounders making the journey from the west coast. The last time this league fixture took place Southport won 2-0 at the Old Showground and exited the Football League the same season 1978 in front of 2,699 fans.

At the Iron Trust's recent board meeting the position of Vice-Chairman was up for nomination after the resignation from the board by Richard Harmer. Dave Beverley was put forward for the role and now takes over the position.

Another role assumed by Richard was that of membership secretary, Jake Stockdale offered himself up to take on those duties. The latest meeting confirmed the membership of the Trust now stands at 745. The memberships are being processed, added to various data bases and with the arrival of pin badges new members should receive their goodies through the post this week

New members should also be receiving the newsletter sent out prior to each home league game. This has already seen a marked increase the number of votes cast for our player of the month award

The Trust has had some international visitors at Trust corner recently with Andy Ki popping in to say hello after his 5,500 mile journey from South Korea for the Brackley Town League match. Andy started supporting the Iron after selecting former star centre half David Mirfin in his FIFA online team, obviously following 'Mirf' led Andy to the Iron and the start of what could be a life-long calling. We all start somewhere and I am sure fellow Iron fans will now be recalling their own starting point and of course their first ever game at the Old Showground or Glanford Park. The one that gets you hooked and starts the roller coaster journey of being a real football supporter with its unique highs and lows!

See you all on Saturday when Warrington Town are the visitors with further news from our latest board meeting and a proposal for our members to ponder over as we at the Iron Trust offer our backing to the new board of directors at Scunthorpe United.

All local people remember how their life-long passion for the Iron began and hopefully won't regret where it has led.

Up the mighty Iron as we Stand United with our club!

Referrals

As part of our sponsorship with Scunthorpe United FC, we will be offering a referral for new clients that quote "SUFC10" when joining us.

This means that 10% of all first year fees will go towards helping disadvantaged young irons play and watch the sport they love.

ON THE ROAD HEREFORD

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 2ND - 3PM

The Iron are next on the road at the start of December, making the second longest trip of the season.

The fixture against Bulls will be the first between the sides in Hereford's new form, and will be Scunthorpe's first trip to Edgar Street since September 2008.

THE STADIUM

They don't make them like Edgar Street anymore!

From the large chunky floodlights to the semi-circular terraces, the ground is certainly 'old school.' But it is a proper old-fashioned football ground that is both unique and memorable.

Since the Club's formation as a fan-owned club in 2015 (following the demise of Hereford United), a lot of effort has been put into bringing the facilities up to scratch and to brighten up the look of the ground.

Segregation is normally in force for most games at Edgar Street. Away fans are housed on one side of the Len Weston Stand at one side of the pitch. This stand has an upper tier of seating that overhangs a lower tier of terracing.

The views from this areas are a bit mixed as there is an annoying (but necessary) guardrail running along the front of the seated section, that could impede your view from the lower row of seats. Also, it is quite hard at times to see the near touchline. Entrance to the away section is to be found at the corner of Edgar Street and Blackfriars Street.

BY CAR

174 miles from Glanford Park, it will take approximately three hours and 20 minutes to journey from the Iron's stadium.

> Follow M180, M18 and M1 to A42 in Leicestershire. Take the A42 exit from M1

> Continue on the A42 and follow M42 and M5 to Whittington Rd in Worcestershire. Take exit 7 from M5

> Follow A4440 and A4103 to Edgar St/A49 in Hereford

CAR PARKING

A look at the Iron's next home game...

WARRINGTON TOWN

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 25TH, 2023 - 3PM KICK-OFF

The Iron welcome Warrington Town to Glanford Park on Saturday for the third of three back-to-back home games.

The game will be the first meeting between the two teams in their histories, as has been the case for many of United's encounters so far this campaign.

Going into this evening's round of fixtures, Warrington sit in 11th position with 25 points from their 17 games, with one or two games in hand in comparison with a number of other sides across the division.

The Yellows commenced their campaign on their travels by smashing the Iron's opponents tonight Southport, with the result followed up with 2-0 home defeat against Blyth Spartans. They would then beat Buxton 1-0 three days later before repeating the scoreline against Chorley. They'd then enter Lincolnshire and lose 2-0 at Boston before a 4-1 home defeat to Curzon Ashton in what was a really topsy-turvy start.

Their first draw of the season would be on September 5th when an entertaining six-goal thriller finished all square.

In recent times, Warrington were drawn to face Blyth in the FA Trophy at the weekend and lost for the second time this season to the side. Prior to that they had back-to-back league wins against Rushall Olympic and Gloucester City.

Tonight they travel to face Darlington, who were here at the weekend.
